The current continuous (sometimes called contemporary progressive) time in English is really easy and is the same for all verbs. We make it using the present simple of 'be' + verb-ing. (Click here if you'd prefer to learn how to USE this tense) Here is how we make the positive: Positive Positive Short Form I am sleeping I'm sleeping he is sleeping he's sleeping it's sleeping we're sleeping they're sleeping We can make the negative by adding 'not'. Negative Negative Short Form I am not sleeping, really easy. Just as we are asking a question with a 'be' in the current simple, here we also put 'am', 'is', or 'are' before the subject to make a 'yes/no' question: Yes/No Questions I eat chocolate? You're studying now? Works? Is he doing his homework? Raining? Meet me at six? Come? For 'wh' questions, just put the question word on the front: Wh Questions Why am I eating chocolate? What are you studying now? When does he work? What's he doing? Why is it raining? Who are we meeting? How do they travel? Practice making 'wh' and 'yes/no' questions (exercise 1) Practice making 'wh' and 'yes/no' questions (exercise 2) Mixed exercise 1 (includes positive, negative, and questions) Mixed exercises 2 Mixed exercises 3 Click here if you would like to learn how to use continuous current select current simple or current continuous.
